KEY FINDINGS

- Inflation has impacted shopping and spending habits and challenged the ability to save.
 - Nearly two-fifths (38%) of consumers have decreased unnecessary shopping due to inflation, and another 16% have eliminated it entirely.
 - Sixty-one percent of consumers find it difficult to save money due to the current inflation issues.
- The rise of gas prices due to inflation has had minimal impact on transportation habits.
 - Only 15% of consumers report a switch to carpooling or public transportation due to the increased cost of gas.
- The side-hustle/gig economy continues to grow as a result of the inflation impact.
 - Since inflation, 23% of consumers have started a side hustle, a small business, or an additional job, and another 32% have considered it.
- Most consumers report being financially stable, and not living paycheck to paycheck.
 - Most consumers (69%) do not typically run out of money between paychecks. However, one quarter (25%) of consumers report that they would not be able to cover an unexpected $1,000 emergency expense.

INFLATION IMPACT: SPENDING AND TRANSPORTATION

Over half of consumers (54%) have either decreased or eliminated unnecessary shopping due to inflation. Sixty-one percent of consumers report that the current inflation issues make it more difficult for them to save money.
